

ACQEI – Legal Workshops Series for Nurse Managers

ACQEI is pleased to announce a series of short workshops delivered in partnership with our Gold Sponsor – Hynes Lawyers. Each workshop will be delivered by one of Hynes Lawyers experienced aged care lawyers and has been endorsed by ACQEI as an APEC Workshop with the Royal College of Nursing.

To register your interest in one of the workshops, call Gayle Stangle on (07) 3725 5585 or email gayles@acqi.org.au

Julie McStay and the aged care and retirement living team at Hynes Lawyers provide highly specialised advice to providers in the aged care, community care and retirement living industries.

Hynes Lawyers focus is on ensuring clients are kept informed of developments in these highly regulated industries as and when they occur. Recent work has included mergers and acquisitions for service providers, review and reporting on critical legislation impacting on the sector, liaison with DoHA on behalf of clients, consultation on end of life matters and acting for service providers on coronial matters.

Critical legal issues for aged care managers – 20th February

9:00am – 4:00pm at Jindalee

Increasingly your time is taken up with regulatory, statutory and administrative compliance and legal risk management, rather than the delivery of care.

This full day workshop will inform and teach you about the practicalities of:

- The Productivity Commission Report
- Negligence: personal and corporate legal exposure;
- Criminal and civil liability in circumstances including:
 - Euthanasia and assisted suicide
 - End of life decision making and palliative care
 - Refusal of treatment resulting in death
 - Consent to treatment
 - Decision making for people with impaired capacity
- Staff complaints, the personal and professional implications of:
 - Bullying and harassment
 - Discrimination
- Workplace health and safety incidents
- Dealing with the police, the coroner and other statutory authorities (including CIS and DoHA)
- Dangers and pitfalls of;
 - Compulsory reporting
 - Resident complaint handling
- Appropriate content for policies and procedures

Cost: $475.00 per person

(incl. catering, please advise special dietary requirements)
(6 CNE Points)